NOTICE

Sub: Clarification w.r.t non shortlisting of applicants for various non-teaching /skill posts against Advt. No-SVSU/2020/ Estt./NT/AB/09, C&D/10 & NTSI/11

Reference: the notices for shortlisting and document verification for various non-teaching /skill posts, displayed on the University website

Whereas various queries/emails/requests/representations are being received, in response to the above referred notices, stating that he/she has not been shortlisted for document verification, despite having qualified the written and/or skill test(s) held for respective posts.

2. As already mentioned in previous notices issued from time to time, it is once again clarified to all concerned that

- a) All the applicants were called to appear in the written and/or skill test(s) for respective post(s), with an advice to satisfy themselves that they are eligible as per the eligibility conditions specified in the advertisement as the University will establish the eligibility of the applicants who qualify the test(s).
- b) The applicants have been shortlisted for further process of selection (i.e., for Interview for Group-A & B posts and merit preparation for Group C & D posts as per the criteria already specified in the advertisement).
- c) A total of up to fifteen eligible applicants for one post (Group A & B) have been shortlisted for document verification & thereafter Interview, on the basis of the composite score of written test and academic weightage.
- d) A total of up to five eligible applicants for one post (Group C & D) have been shortlisted for document verification & thereafter merit preparation, on the basis of the written test score.

3. Accordingly, the eligible applicants who couldn't score enough marks to be among the top fifteen/five, as the case may be, could not be shortlisted for respective post(s). The marks obtained by the applicants in the written and/or skill test(s) are confidential during the selection process. As soon as the process is completed, the mark-lists of the written/skill test(s) will be placed in public domain.

4. Issued for clarification in response of the queries/emails/representations being received, with an advice to refrain from further correspondence in this regard.
