

Prof. Joy Kuriakose

Educated at University of Calicut (Kerala), Delhi University, National Law University, Delhi, National Law University, Hyderabad, Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan and London School of Economics and Political Science, Prof. Kuriakose's Academic Degrees are in Economics, Political Science and Social Anthropology; his Professional Degrees are in Law, Aviation Law & Air Transport Management, besides Post Graduate Diplomas in Industrial Relations, Personnel Management, Competition Law and Competition Policy. His core research areas are 'Public Private partnership' and 'Maritime Trade'. Prof. Kuriakose has travelled extensively in India, Europe, North America and Southeast Asia. He has a total experience of 27 years in the areas of governance, human resources management, regulatory governance, market regulation, airport regulation and project management. He has conducted different national as well as international seminars, workshops, symposia and round table conferences as part of the UN Project(s) he has handled for years as its Director.

